Subject to the provisions of this Article, if an originating good of the other Country, as a result of the elimination or reduction of a customs duty in accordance with Article 19, is being imported into the territory of a Country in such increased quantities, in absolute terms or relative to domestic production, and under such conditions that the imports of that originating good constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or threat thereof, to a domestic industry of the latter Country, the latter Country may, as a bilateral safeguard measure, to the minimum extent necessary to prevent or remedy the serious injury and to facilitate adjustment:

- (a) suspend the further reduction of any rate of customs duty on the originating good provided for in this Chapter; or
- (b) increase the rate of customs duty on the originating good to a level not to exceed the lesser of:
 - (i) the most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty in effect at the time when the bilateral safeguard measure set out in this paragraph is taken; and
 - (ii) the most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty in effect on the day immediately preceding the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

2. Each Country shall not apply bilateral safeguard measures on an originating good imported up to the limit of quota quantities granted under tariff rate quotas applied in accordance with its Schedule in Annex 1.

3. (a) A Country may take a bilateral safeguard measure only after an investigation has been carried out by the competent authorities of that Country in accordance with the same procedures as those provided for in Article 3 and paragraph 2 of Article 4 of the Agreement on Safeguards in Annex 1A to the WTO Agreement, as may be amended (hereinafter referred to in this Chapter as "the Agreement on Safeguards").

(b) The investigation referred to in subparagraph (a) shall in all cases be completed within one year following its date of initiation.

4. The following conditions and limitations shall apply with regard to a bilateral safeguard measure:

(a) A Country shall immediately deliver a written notice to the other Country upon:

(i) initiating an investigation referred to in subparagraph 3(a) of this Article relating to serious injury, or threat thereof, and the reasons for it; and

(ii) taking a decision to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure.

(b) The Country making the written notice referred to in subparagraph (a) shall provide the other Country with all pertinent information, which shall include:

(i) in the written notice referred to in subparagraph (a)(i), the reason for the initiation of the investigation, a precise description of an originating good subject to the investigation and its subheading or a more detailed level of the Harmonized System, the period subject to the investigation and the date of initiation of the investigation; and

- (ii) in the written notice referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii), evidence of serious injury or threat thereof caused by the increased imports of the originating good, a precise description of the originating good subject to the proposed bilateral safeguard measure and its subheading or a more detailed level of the Harmonized System, a precise description of the bilateral safeguard measure, the proposed date of its introduction and its expected duration.
- (c) A Country proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide adequate opportunity for prior consultations with the other Country with a view to reviewing the information arising from the investigation referred to in subparagraph 3(a) of this Article, exchanging views on the bilateral safeguard measure and reaching an agreement on compensation set out in paragraph 5 of this Article.
- (d) No bilateral safeguard measure shall be maintained except to the extent and for such time as may be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment, provided that such time shall not exceed a period of 4four years. However, in very exceptional circumstances, a bilateral safeguard measure may be maintained for up to a total maximum period of 5five years. In order to facilitate adjustment in a situation where the expected duration of a bilateral safeguard measure is over one year, the Country maintaining the bilateral safeguard measure shall progressively liberalise the bilateral safeguard measure at regular intervals during the period of application.
- (e) No bilateral safeguard measure shall be applied again to the import of a particular originating good which has been subject to such a bilateral safeguard measure, for a period of time equal to the duration of the previous bilateral safeguard measure or one year, whichever is longer.
- (f) Upon the termination of a bilateral safeguard measure, the rate of customs duty shall be the rate which would have been in effect but for the bilateral safeguard measure.

5. (a) A Country proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide to the other Country mutually agreed adequate means of trade compensation in the form of concessions of customs duties whose levels are substantially equivalent to the value of the additional customs duties expected to result from the bilateral safeguard measure.
- (b) If the Countries are unable to agree on the compensation within 30 days after the commencement of the consultation pursuant to subparagraph 4(c) of this Article, the Country against whose originating good the bilateral safeguard measure is taken shall be free to suspend the application of concessions of customs duties under this Agreement, which are substantially equivalent to the bilateral safeguard measure.
- (c) The right of suspension provided for in subparagraph (b) shall not be exercised for the first 18 months that a bilateral safeguard measure is in effect, provided that the bilateral safeguard measure has been taken as a result of an absolute increase in imports and that such a bilateral safeguard measure conforms to the provisions of this Article. The Country exercising the right of suspension may suspend the application of concessions of customs duties only for the minimum period necessary to achieve the substantially equivalent effects and only while the bilateral safeguard measure is maintained.

6. Nothing in this Chapter shall prevent a Country from applying safeguard measures to an originating good in accordance with:

- (a) Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the Agreement on Safeguards; or
- (b) Article 5 of the Agreement on Agriculture.

7. Each Country shall ensure the consistent, impartial and reasonable administration of its laws and regulations relating to the bilateral safeguard measure.

8. Each Country shall adopt or maintain equitable, timely, transparent and effective procedures relating to bilateral safeguard measure.

9. (a) In critical circumstances, where delay would cause damage which it would be difficult to repair, a Country may take a provisional bilateral safeguard measure, which shall take the form of the measure set out in subparagraph 1(a) or (b) of this Article pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that increased imports of an originating good have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury to a domestic industry.
- (b) The Country shall deliver a written notice to the other Country prior to applying a provisional bilateral safeguard measure. Consultations between the Countries on the application of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be initiated immediately after the provisional bilateral safeguard measure is taken.
- (c) The duration of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall not exceed 200 days. During that period, the pertinent requirements of paragraph 3 of this Article shall be met. The duration of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be counted as a part of the period referred to in subparagraph 4(d) of this Article.

2. Where a Country's monopoly supplier competes, either directly or through an affiliated company, in the supply of a service outside the scope of its monopoly rights and which is subject to that Country's specific commitments, the Country shall ensure that such a supplier does not abuse its monopoly position to act in the Country in a manner inconsistent with such commitments.
